

In need of a male pharmacist

Cowboy walked into a drug store and asked to talk to a male pharmacist. The woman he was talking to said that she was the only pharmacist and as she and her sister owned the store, there were no males employed there. She then asked if she could help him.

The cowpoke said that it was something that he would be much more comfortable discussing with a male pharmacist. The female pharmacist assured him that she was completely professional, and whatever it was that he needed to discuss, he could be confident that she would treat him with the highest level of professionalism.

The cowboy then agreed and began by saying
"This is tough for me to discuss, but I have a Permanent Erection. It causes me a lot of problems, and severe embarrassment, and I was wondering what you could give me for it."□

The pharmacist said "Just a minute, I'll talk to my sister." When she returned, she said "We discussed it at length, and the absolute best we can do is as follows:

One-third ownership in the store
A company pickup truck
Five home cooked dinners a week
And $3,000 a month in living expenses."
